

Middle Colonies	Who?	Reason?	Gov.?
N.Y.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> First the Dutch Then James, the Duke of York (later called King James II) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> English wanted to expand from New England Proprietary colony 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Self-government Later a royal colony Jacob Leisler fought to keep the assembly
N.J.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Sir George Carteret Lord John Berkeley 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Proprietary colony 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Self-government Religious toleration (The Quakers followed George Fox)
Penn.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> William Penn 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Proprietary colony He view his colony as a "Holy Experiment" 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Self-government Religious toleration The "Frame Of Government"
Del.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Swedish Later governed with Pennsylvania 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Proprietary colony 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Self-government Religious toleration (like Pennsylvania)
[extra notes]			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Some colonies offered cheap land to attract settlers